General Information On Condominiums

A condominium is a special form of real property. To create a condominium in Hawaii, the requirements of the Condominium Property Act, Chapter 514A, Hawaii Revised Statutes, must be complied with. In addition, certain requirements and approvals of the County in which the project is located must be satisfied and obtained.

Some condominium projects are leasehold. This means that the land or the building(s) and other improvements are leased to the buyer. The lease for the land usually requires that at the end of the lease term, the lessees (apartment owners/tenants) deliver their interest in the land to the lessor (fee property owner). The lease also usually requires that the lessees either (1) convey to the lessor the building(s) and other improvements, including any improvements paid for by the lessees; or (2) remove or dispose of the improvements at the lessee's expense. Leases for individual apartments often require that at the end of the lease term, the lessee deliver to the lessor the apartment, including any improvements placed in the apartment by the lessee.

If you are a typical condominium apartment owner, you will have two kinds of ownership: (1) ownership in your individual apartment; and (2) an undivided interest in the common elements.

"Common elements" are the areas of the condominium project other than the individual apartments. They are owned jointly by all apartment owners and include the land, either in fee simple or leasehold, and those parts of the building or buildings intended for common use such as foundations, columns, roofs, halls, elevators, and the like. Your undivided interest in the common elements cannot be separated from ownership of your apartment.

In some condominium projects, some common elements are reserved for the exclusive use of the owners of certain apartments. These common elements are called "limited common elements" and may include parking stalls, patios, lanais, trash chutes, and the like.

You will be entitled to exclusive ownership and possession of your apartment. Condominium apartments may be individually bought, sold, rented, mortgaged or encumbered, and may be disposed of by will, gift, or operation of law.

Your apartment will, however, be part of the group of apartments that comprise the condominium project. Study the project's Declaration, Bylaws, and House Rules. These documents contain important information on the use and occupancy of apartments and the common elements as well as the rules of conduct for owners, tenants, and guests.

Operation of the Condominium Project

The Association of Apartment Owners is the entity through which apartment owners may take action with regard to the administration, management, and operation of the condominium project. Each apartment owner is automatically a member of the Association.

The Board of Directors is the governing body of the Association. Unless you serve as a board member or an officer, or are on a committee appointed by the board, your participation in the administration and operation of the condominium project will in most cases be limited to your right to vote as an apartment owner. The Board of Directors and officers can take certain actions without the vote of the owners. For example, the board may hire and fire employees, increase or decrease maintenance fees, borrow money for repair and improvements and set a budget. Some of these actions may significantly impact the apartment owners.

Until there is a sufficient number of purchasers of apartments to elect a majority of the Board of Directors, it is likely that the developer will effectively control the affairs of the Association. It is frequently necessary for the developer to do so during the early stages of development and the developer may reserve certain special rights to do so in the Declaration and Bylaws. Prospective buyers should understand that it is important to all apartment owners that the transition of control from the developer to the apartment owners be accomplished in an orderly manner and in a spirit of cooperation.

II. CREATION OF THE CONDOMINIUM; CONDOMINIUM DOCUMENTS

A condominium is created by recording in the Bureau of Conveyances and/or filing with the Land Court a Declaration of Condominium Property Regime, a Condominium Map (File Plan), and the Bylaws of the Association of Apartment Owners. The Condominium Property Act (Chapter 514A, HRS), the Declaration, Bylaws, and House Rules control the rights and obligations of the apartment owners with respect to the project and the common elements, to each other, and to their respective apartments. The provisions of these documents are intended to be, and in most cases are, enforceable in a court of law.

A. Declaration of Condominium Property Regime contains a description of the land, buildings, apartments, common elements, limited common elements, common interests, and other information relating to the condominium project.

The Declaration for this condominium is:

C. Bylaws of the Association of Apartment Owners govern the operation of the condominium project. They provide for the manner in which the Board of Directors of the Association of Apartment Owners is elected, the powers and duties of the Board, the manner in which meetings will be conducted, whether pets are prohibited or allowed and other matters which affect how the condominium project will be governed.

The Bylaws for this condominium are:

D. House Rules. The Board of Directors may adopt House Rules to govern the use and operation of the common elements and limited common elements. House Rules may cover matters such as parking regulations, hours of operation for common facilities such as recreation areas, use of lanais and requirements for keeping pets. These rules must be followed by owners, tenants, and guests. They do not need to be recorded or filed to be effective. The initial House Rules are usually adopted by the developer.

The House Rules for this condominium are:

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ON LEASEHOLD CONDOMINIUM PROJECTS

The information contained in this report is a summary of the terms of the lease. For more detailed information, you should secure a copy of the lease documents and read them thoroughly.

If you have any legal questions about leasehold property, the lease documents or the terms of the lease and the consequences of becoming a lessee, you should seek the advice of an attorney.

There are currently no statutory provisions for the mandatory conversion of leasehold condominiums and there are no assurances that such measures will be enacted in the future.

In leasehold condominium projects, the buyer of an apartment will acquire the right to occupy and use the apartment for the time stated in the lease agreement. The buyer will not acquire outright or absolute fee simple ownership of the land. The land is owned by the lessor or the leased fee owner. The apartment owner or lessee must make lease rent payments and comply with the terms of the lease or be subject to the lessor's enforcement actions. The lease rent payments are usually fixed at specific amounts for fixed periods of time, and are then subject to renegotiation. Renegotiation may be based on a formula, by arbitration set in the lease agreement, by law or by agreement between the lessor and lessee. The renegotiated lease rents may increase significantly. At the end of the lease, the apartment owners may have to surrender the apartments, the improvements and the land back to the lessor without any compensation (surrender clause).

When leasehold property is sold, title is normally conveyed by means of an assignment of lease, the purpose of which is similar to that of a deed. The legal and practical effect is different because the assignment conveys only the rights and obligations created by the lease, not the property itself.

The developer of this condominium project may have entered into a master ground lease with the fee simple owner of the land in order to develop the project. The developer may have then entered into a sublease or a new lease of the land with the lessee (apartment owner). The developer may lease the improvements to the apartment owner by way of an apartment lease or sublease, or sell the improvements to the apartment owners by way of a condominium conveyance or apartment deed.

b. Conforming/Non-Conforming Uses, Structures, Lot

In general, a non-conforming use, structure, or lot is a use, structure, or lot which was lawful at one time but which does not now conform to present zoning requirements.

	Conforming	Non-Conforming	Illegal
Uses	X
Structures	X
Lot	X

If a variance has been granted or if uses, improvements or lot are either non-conforming or illegal, buyer should consult with county zoning authorities as to possible limitations which may apply.

Limitations may include restrictions on extending, enlarging, or continuing the non-conformity, and restrictions on altering and repairing structures. In some cases, a non-conforming structure that is destroyed or damaged cannot be reconstructed.

The buyer may not be able to obtain financing or insurance if the condominium project has a non-conforming or illegal use, structure, or lot.

D. Common Elements, Limited Common Elements, Common Interest:

1. Common Elements: Common Elements are those parts of the condominium project other than the individual apartments. Although the common elements are owned jointly by all apartment owners, those portions of the common elements which are designated as limited common elements (see paragraph 2 below) may be used only by those apartments to which they are assigned. The common elements for this project, as described in the Declaration, are:

☒ described in Exhibit C.

☐ as follows:

2. Limited Common Elements: Limited Common Elements are those common elements which are reserved for the exclusive use of the owners of certain apartments.

☐ There are no limited common elements in this project.

☐ The limited common elements and the apartments which use them, as described in the Declaration, are:

☒ described in Exhibit D.

☐ as follows:

3. Common Interest: Each apartment will have an undivided fractional interest in all of the common elements. This interest is called the "common interest." It is used to determine each apartment's share of the maintenance fees and other common profits and expenses of the condominium project. It may also be used for other purposes, including voting on matters requiring action by apartment owners. The common interests for the apartments in this project, as described in the Declaration, are:

☐ described in Exhibit _____.

☒ as follows:

Unit 67-273: 50%

Unit 67-275: 50%

- E. Encumbrances Against Title: An encumbrance is a claim against or a liability on the property or a document affecting the title or use of the property. Encumbrances may have an adverse effect on the property or your purchase and ownership of an apartment in the project.

Exhibit E describes the encumbrances against the title contained in the title report dated September 27, 2012 and issued by Fidelity National Title & Escrow of Hawaii, Inc.

Blanket Liens:

A blanket lien is an encumbrance (such as a mortgage) on the entire condominium project that secures some type of monetary debt (such as a loan) or other obligation. A blanket lien is usually released on an apartment-by-apartment basis upon payment of specified sums so that individual apartments can be conveyed to buyers free and clear of the lien.

[] There are no blanket liens affecting title to the individual apartments.

[] There are blanket liens which may affect title to the individual apartments.

Blanket liens (except for improvement district or utility assessments) must be released before the developer conveys the apartment to a buyer. The buyer's interest will be affected if the developer defaults and the lien is foreclosed prior to conveying the apartment to buyer.

Type of Lien	Effect on Buyer's Interest and Deposit if Developer Defaults or Lien is Foreclosed Prior to Conveyance
Mortgage	Buyer's interest may be terminated by mortgagee but Buyer shall be entitled to return of his deposit, less escrow cancellation fee

F. Construction Warranties:

IV. CONDOMINIUM MANAGEMENT

- A. Management of the Common Elements: The Association of Apartment Owners is responsible for the management of the common elements and the overall operation of the condominium project. The Association may be permitted, and in some cases may be required, to employ or retain a condominium managing agent to assist the Association in managing the condominium project.

Initial Condominium Managing Agent: When the developer or the developer's affiliate is the initial condominium managing agent, the management contract must have a term of one year or less and the parties must be able to terminate the contract on notice of 60 days or less.

LEAD WARNING STATEMENT

Pursuant to federal law, 42, U.S.C 4852(d), the Residential Lead-Based Paint Reduction Act, "Every purchaser of any interest in residential real property on which a residential dwelling was built prior to 1978 is notified that such property may present exposure to lead from lead-based paint that may place young children at risk of developing lead poisoning. Lead poisoning in young children may produce permanent neurological damage, including learning disabilities, reduced intelligence quotient, behavioral problems, and impaired memory. Lead poisoning also poses a particular risk to pregnant women. The seller of any interest in residential real property is required to provide the buyer with any information on lead-based paint hazards from risk assessments or inspections in the seller's possession and notify the buyer of any known lead-based paint hazards. A risk assessment or inspection for possible lead-based paint hazards is recommended prior to purchase."

Buyer acknowledges that in light of the age of the Project, there may be asbestos and other hazardous substances in the apartments, or in, under or around the Project. Because of the possible presence of such substances, Buyer should have the apartment inspected to determine the extent (if any) of such contamination and any necessary remedial action. The developer will not correct any defects in the apartments or in the Project or anything installed or contained therein and Buyer expressly releases the developer from any liability to Buyer if any hazardous materials are discovered.

DEVELOPER'S RESERVED RIGHTS

The Developer (Declarant) has reserved the following rights to change the Declaration, Condominium Map, By-Laws or House Rules:

Paragraph 20 of the Declaration states:

"20.1 Amendments Generally. Except as otherwise expressly provided herein or in the Act, this Declaration and the Condominium Map may be amended only by the affirmative vote or written consent of all of the Building Owners, evidenced by an instrument in writing, signed and acknowledged by each of them, which amendment shall be effective upon recordation in the Recording Office; provided, however, that notwithstanding the foregoing provision, at any time prior to the first recording of a conveyance or transfer (other than for security) of a Building and its appurtenances to a party not a signatory hereto, the Declarants may amend this Declaration (including all exhibits), the Condominium Map and the Bylaws in any manner, without the consent or joinder of any Apartment purchaser or any other party. Notwithstanding the lease, sale or conveyance of any of the Buildings, Declarants may amend this Declaration (and when applicable, any exhibits to this Declaration and the Condominium Map) to file the "as-built" verified statement required by Section 514A-12 of the Act (i) so long as such statement is merely a verified statement of a registered architect or professional engineer certifying that the final plan thereto filed fully and accurately depict the layout, location, building numbers, and the dimensions of the Buildings as built, or (ii) so long as the plans filed therewith involve only minor changes to the layout, location, or dimensions of the Buildings as built or any change in the Building number.

20.2 Amendments Required by Law, Lenders, Title Insurers, Etc. Any other provision of this Declaration notwithstanding, for so long as the Declarants retain any interest in a Building in the Project, the Declarants shall have the right (but not the obligation) to amend this Declaration and the Bylaws (and the Condominium Map, if appropriate) without the consent or joinder of any Building Owner, lienholder or other person or entity, for the purpose of meeting any requirement imposed by (i) any applicable law, (ii) the Real Estate Commission of the State of Hawaii, (iii) any title insurance company issuing a title insurance policy on the Project or any of the Buildings, (iv) any institutional lender lending funds on the security of the Project or any of the Buildings or (v) any other governmental or quasi-governmental agency including, without limitation, the Federal National Mortgage Association, the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation, the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development or the Veterans Administration; provided, however, that no amendment which would change the common interest appurtenant to a Building or substantially change the design, location or size of a Building shall be made without the consent of all persons having an interest in such Building. Each and every party acquiring an interest in the Project, by such acquisition, consents to the amendments described in this Paragraph 20.2 and agrees to execute and deliver such documents and instruments and do such other things as may be necessary or convenient to effect the same, and appoints Declarants and its assigns as his or her attorney-in-fact with full power of substitution to execute and deliver such documents and instruments and to do such things on his or her behalf, which grant of such power, being coupled with an interest, is irrevocable for the duration of such reserved rights, and shall not be affected by the disability of such party or parties.

20.3 Any other provision of this Declaration notwithstanding, the approval of eligible holders of first mortgages (as defined below) on Buildings to which at least fifty-one percent (51%) of the votes of Units subject to mortgages held by such eligible holders are allocated shall be required to materially amend any provision herein, or to add any material provisions hereto, which establish, provide for, govern or regulate any of the following: (a) voting; (b) assessments, assessment liens or subordination of such liens; (c) reserves for maintenance, repair and replacement of the common elements; (d) insurance or fidelity bonds; (e) right to use of the common elements; (f) responsibility for maintenance and repair of the several portions of the Project; (g) expansion or contraction of the Project or the addition, annexation or withdrawal of property to or from the Project; (h) boundaries of any Unit (except where the amendment merely reflects that a Unit has been constructed according to alternate plans shown on the Condominium Map); (i) the interests in the common elements or limited common elements; (j) convertibility of Units into common elements or of common elements into Units; (k) leasing of Units; (l) imposition of any right of first refusal or similar restriction on the right of a Unit Owner to sell, transfer, or otherwise convey his Unit; (m) establishment of self-management of the Project by the Association where professional management has been required by any agency or corporation which has an interest or prospective interest in the Project; and (n) any provision that expressly benefits holders, insurers, or guarantors of first mortgages on Buildings in the Project. To qualify as an "eligible holder of a first mortgage", a holder, insurer or guarantor of a first mortgage on a Building in the Project must have made a written request to the Association for timely written notice of proposed amendments to the condominium instruments. The request must state the name and address of the holder, insurer or guarantor and the number of the Unit covered by the mortgage. In the event that an eligible holder of a first mortgage fails to appear at a meeting of the Association at which amendments of a material nature to this Declaration are proposed and considered, or fails to file a written response with the Association within thirty (30) days after it receives proper notice of the proposed amendment, delivered by certified or registered mail, with a "return receipt" requested, then and in any such event such amendments shall conclusively be deemed approved by such eligible holder of a first mortgage.

In addition to the foregoing, no amendment to this Declaration which would allow any action to terminate the condominium property regime created hereby for reasons other than substantial destruction or condemnation shall be made without the prior written approval of not less than sixty-seven percent (67%) of the eligible holders of first mortgages.

20.4 Notwithstanding the foregoing, an Owner shall have the right without the consent or joinder of any other person to amend this Declaration and the Condominium Map to reflect the changes made to his Building in accordance with Paragraph 19.3 of this Declaration. Promptly upon completion of such changes, the Unit Owner shall duly record with the Recording Office an amendment to his Declaration and to the Condominium Map, together with a complete set of the floor plans of the Project as so altered, certified as build by a registered architect or professional engineer. All existing Building Owners and all future Building Owners and their mortgagees, by accepting an interest in a Building, shall be deemed to have given each Building Owner a Power of Attorney to execute an amendment to the Declaration solely for the purpose of describing the changes to his respective Building on the Declaration so that each Building Owner shall hereafter have a Power of Attorney from all the other Building Owners to execute such amendment to the Declaration. This Power of Attorney shall be deemed coupled with each Owner's interest in his Building (including its appurtenant common interest) and shall be irrevocable.

20.5 Restatement. Any other provision of this Declaration notwithstanding, the Board, upon resolution duly adopted, shall have the authority as set forth in the Act to restate this Declaration from time to time to set forth any prior amendments hereto, or to amend this Declaration as required to conform with the provisions of the Act or any other statute, ordinance, rule or regulation enacted by any governmental authority."

EXHIBIT "B"

PERMITTED ALTERATIONS TO APARTMENTS.

Sub-paragraph 19.1 of the Declaration states:

"19.1. Changes to Unit. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Declaration, a Dwelling Owner, with the consent by the holder of any mortgage affecting the Owner's Unit (if required by such mortgage), shall have the right at his sole option at any time and from time to time without the consent of any other person, to improve, renovate, remodel, make additions to, enlarge, remove, replace or restore the improvements to or in his Unit or portions thereof or to make or build improvements upon the Exclusive Area appurtenant to his Unit (collectively, the foregoing are referred to "changes") subject to the following conditions:

The "proportionate share" for each Unit shall be the same as its common interest in the Project.

(d) All such changes shall be at the expense of the Owner making the change, shall be expeditiously made and completed in a manner that will not unreasonably interfere with or cause damage to the other Unit, its appurtenant Exclusive Area, or the use thereof by the Owner of the other Unit.

The Association shall be named as an additional insured and, upon the request of the Association, evidence of such insurance shall be deposited with the Association or its Managing Agent, if any;

(f) The Owner of the changed Unit shall have the right to utilize, relocate and realign existing and/or to develop additional, central and appurtenant installations for services to the Unit affected by such change for electricity, sewer and other utilities and services and when applicable, to add, delete, relocate, realign, designate and grant easement and rights-of-way over, under and on the common elements as necessary or desirable in connection therewith; provided that the same shall not cause any interruption in the service of such utilities to any other part of the Project or otherwise materially interfere with their use by the other Owner;

(g) If the consent to the change or joinder of another Owner is required by the Act, then each Owner hereby consents in advance to such change.

(h) Each and every conveyance, lease and mortgage or other lien made or created on any Unit and all common interests and other appurtenances thereto shall be subject to the provisions of this paragraph and any lease of an Dwelling Area shall reserve to each Owner the rights set forth in this paragraph.

The Sales Contract consists of two documents: a Hawaii Association of Realtors Standard form "Purchase Contract" ("Purchase Contract") and a document attached to the Purchase Contract which is entitled "Special CPR Provisions to the Purchase Contract" ("Special Provisions").

The Special Provisions are intended to amend the Purchase Contract, and unless the context would indicate clearly to the contrary, then in the event of any conflict between a provision contained in the Special Provisions and a provision contained in the Purchase Contract, the provision contained in the Special Provisions will prevail.

1. Description of the Property to be Conveyed: Fee simple title to the Unit, together with the furnishings and appliances, if any, and the undivided interest in the common elements set forth in the Purchase Contract. Title will be conveyed subject to the encumbrances of record.
2. Purchase Price and Terms. The purchase price for the Unit is set forth on page 2 of the Purchase Contract is to be paid in the method and at the times set forth in the Purchase Contract. This may include payment of (a) an initial deposit; (b) an additional cash deposit, if set forth in the Purchase Contract; and (c) the balance of the purchase price is to be paid to escrow by purchaser on or before closing.
3. Financing of Purchase. Paragraph H-3 of the Purchase Contract Form (if elected) provides if Buyer desires financing, a loan application must be made within a certain number of days and if Buyer's application is not approved within a certain number of days after the application, then either Seller or Buyer may cancel the Sales Contract. Upon such cancellation, Buyer's deposits will be refunded by escrow without interest.
4. Closing Costs. Closing costs and escrow fees are to be shared in accordance with the Purchase Contract, except that Seller does have the option to require two months' advance payment of Association maintenance fees and a start up expense for the Association of Unit Owners equal to two months' of Association maintenance fees. Buyer's proportionate share of any liability insurance premium, real property taxes, maintenance fees and any other charges with respect to the Property shall be pro-rated between Seller and Buyer as of the date of closing.

Until closing, Seller has the right to have a mortgage or mortgages placed against the Unit. If the Seller places a future mortgage against the Unit prior to the closing date, Buyer's rights will be subject to such mortgage or mortgages. If Seller were to default under such mortgage or mortgages prior to the closing, then Buyer could lose his rights under the Sales Contract. If such event were to occur, then Buyer's deposits would be returned to him.
 - (b) Notwithstanding that the Sales Contract may be subject to a mortgage or mortgages prior to closing, if the Buyer performs his obligations under the Sales Contract, then Seller is required to convey the Unit to Buyer at closing free and clear of any mortgage.
7. Seller's Rights to Cancel Sales Contract. The Seller may cancel the Sales Contract with the Buyer if (a) Buyer fails to qualify for a permanent loan (if Paragraph H-3 of the Purchase Contract is selected); (b) Buyer defaults under the Sales Contract (paragraph 6(b) of the Special Provisions); (c) Buyer dies prior to Closing Date (paragraph 6(a) of the Special Provisions) or (d) the Developer's Public Report shall not have been issued and Buyer shall not have waived his right to cancel (called the "Effective Date"). Pursuant to Paragraph 6(b) of the Special Provisions, if Buyer fails to close as required, then in the case only of non-monetary default after ten (10) days following Seller's notice of Buyer's default or otherwise without notice as to monetary defaults, the Seller may cancel the Sales Contract and all sums previously paid by Buyer will belong absolutely to the Seller as liquidated damages. Additionally, Seller may pursue any other remedy, and all costs, including reasonable attorney's fees, incurred by reason of default by the Buyer shall be borne by the Buyer. Time is the essence of the Sales Contract.
8. Rights of Buyer to Cancel the Sales Contract.
 - (A) Paragraph 6 of the Sales Addendum gives the Buyer the right to cancel the Sales Contract for any reason subject to the conditions set forth therein. Pertinent provisions within Paragraph 6 are as follows:

"(a) Rescission Right. Except for any additions, deletions, modifications and exercise by Seller of reservations made pursuant to the terms of the Declaration of Condominium Property Regime for the Project, the Buyer may rescind his purchase of the Property even though this sales contract is binding upon him if there is a material change in the Project which directly, substantially, and adversely affects the use or value of (1) the Buyer's Property or appurtenant limited common elements, or (2) those amenities of the Project available for the Buyer's use.

(b) Waiver of Rescission Right. Upon delivery to the Buyer of a description of the material change on a form prescribed by the Real Estate Commission, the Buyer may waive the buyer's rescission right provided in subsection (a) by:

Seller reserves the right to modify the above documents as may be required by law, any title insurance company, or any institutional mortgagee.

10. Paragraph 12 provides that because of the age of the Property, Seller shall convey the Property (including the common elements) in "as is" condition. This means that: (i) Buyer is assuming all risks as to the condition of the Property and the Project, including the land; (ii) Seller will not be obligated to correct any defects in the Property or the Project (including the land) or anything installed or contained therein if such defects are later discovered, and (iii) Buyer shall not have the right to file any lawsuit for damages against Seller for any defects later discovered.

The Summary contained in this Exhibit is merely a summary and is not intended to be a substitute for the Buyer's careful review of the Sales Contract.

Dear Ms. Hung:

Subject: Condominium Conversion Project
67-273 and 67-275 Kiapoko Street
Tax Map Key: 6-7-015: 015

This is in response to your letter dated July 5, 2012, requesting verification that the structure on the above-referenced property met all applicable code requirements at the time of construction.

Investigation revealed that the two-story two-family detached dwelling with five all-weather-surface off-street parking spaces met all applicable code requirements when it was constructed in 1963 on this 8,050-square-foot R-5-Residential-District-zoned lot.

For your information, the Department of Planning and Permitting cannot determine all legal nonconforming uses or structures, as a result of the adoption or amendment of any ordinance or code.

No variances or other permits were granted to allow deviations from any applicable codes.

Conversion to a condominium property regime (CPR) is not recognized by the City and County as an approved subdivision. CPR delineates ownership; it does not create separate lots of record for subdivision and zoning purposes.

If you have any questions regarding this matter, please contact Alex Sugai of our Commercial and Multi-Family Code Enforcement Branch at 768-8152.

Very truly yours,
